

Dear Parents,

Date: 27.09.21

Greetings !

This is to inform you that TIMES.NIE will be uploaded in Google classroom in library on daily basis from today onwards. The students can read it as it will help in improvising the reading skills, impart general awareness and moreover it includes the activities and competition through which students will get the exposure and fun. The information about the workshops and webinars for parents and students are also given which may help to focus on academics as well as to find the solutions for issues faced related to it.

Principal.
